

Media release
8 July 2011

Victorian Utilibill wins award for innovation in the SME market

Billing and provisioning provider, Utilibill, has won the prestigious award for innovation in the SME market at the 2011 Communications Alliance & CommsDay ACOMM Award last night in Sydney.

The title was won based on its next generation technology which consolidates up to 15 disparate telecommunication business systems, as well as introducing gas, water, electricity and other devices to a single business system delivered in the cloud.

"Convergence is finally upon us and Utilibill is smack bang in the middle of a rapidly evolving sector. Being recognised as innovation leaders in one the most innovative industries brings great satisfaction to our team that work tirelessly under Igor Green our CEO, to deliver solutions for complex changing customer challenges," says Utilibill managing director Morgan Duncan.

Customers include retail telcos, embedded networks providers and electricity retailers.

Within the same week, Utilibill was announced finalist in the Victoria Telstra Business Awards, received merit in the iAwards and finalist at the Asia communications awards in Singapore.

Last night's award ceremony was attended by more than 500 industry leaders, and the keynote address was delivered by communications minister Stephen Conroy.

Finalists on the night for the innovation – SME category included OptiComm and Amcom.

Other categories announced included: Innovation - Large Company, Services to Industry - Professional Services, Partnerships for Growth, Commitment to Customer Service, Innovation in Content Delivery, Environmental Responsibility, Community Contribution, Young Achiever and 2011 Communications Ambassador Award.

Utilibill's cloud based BSS/OSS platform provides service to customers in Australia, New Zealand and the United Kingdom.

The product - Utilibill Auto - provisions, configures and bills the full suite of telecommunications services.

The company is currently in discussions with new customers in Israel, Arica, Sri Lanka, India and USA.

For more information visit www.utilibill.com.au/index.htm